

Army Public School, Kota
Practice Paper
Class – V
Subject – EVS

Q1. Tick the correct answer.

1) The Bay of Bengal lies to India's.

(a) East (b) West (c) North West (d) South

2) The Capital of Andaman and Nicobar Islands is.

(a) Assam (b) Nepal (c) Bhutan (d) Port Blair

3) The British forced Indian farmers to grow.

(a) Wheat (b) Indigo (c) Bajra (d) Opium

4) Vasco Da Gama who discovered the direct sea route to India was

(a) British (b) French (c) Portuguese (d) Dutch

5) British rule caused widespread..... among Indians.

(a) happiness (b) anger (c) sadness (d) discontentment

Q2 Give one word answer:-

1) The longest bone in our body. _____

2) The smallest bone in our body _____

3) Name the joint that allows movement in all directions _____

4) The Pipe that takes down the food to the stomach _____

5) The gland that produces saliva _____

Q3 Answer in short:-

(A) Q1 How do muscle work?

Q2 Which is the most important organ in the circulatory system? Define its system.

Q3 Why did the greased cartridges offend both the Hindus and the Muslims?

(B) Define:-

Q1 Types of teeth

Q2 Landscape

Q3 Peninsula

Q4 Joint

Q4 Answer in detail:-

Q1 Explain the process of digestion with the help of a diagram?

Q2 Write the difference between moveable joint and immovable joint. Explain with the help of examples?

Q3 What were the causes of the Revolt of 1857?

Q4 What would happen if India was not divided into states and Union territories?

Q5 Draw a diagram of respiratory system and label it.

Q6 Mark five physical divisions of India on physical map of India.